

General Description

This product is designed for calibration of consumer UV measuring devices such as weather stations, watches or mobile phones. The unit emits a constant UV radiation which is similar to the sun's UV spectra. It is perfectly suited to calibrate small product series up to 5,000 units per month.

Features of the UV_Calibrator_4

- IPID controller
- Accurate positioning of the product to calibrate with customised adaptor
- Lamp with good accordance with the erythema action curve
- Stable industrial standard frame
- UV lamp status display